I would recommend that you get John Maxwell's book, "The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership." That will give you a great foundation in leadership. As far as being on the Board, just do a lot of listening and give your advice/opinion as requested. Several of the functions of a board member is to vote and approve various financial moves of an organization and make sure things are done legally and in proper order.

Thank you....this is an answer to my prayers!

I honor you as a gift to the world, and understand your time constraints...

I promise that however this begins, that I will not attempt to monopolize your time, and will qualify what I bring to the table for us to begin to deal with.

There is one rather timely issue that I am anxious about... the new realm of leadership assignments.

I have been thrust into 2 major leadership roles in my work....At AWDA I've got the sole responsibility for the Taxi Bureau's Ambassador training program for the next month or so(2008 other certified trainers will come on board, and relieve me of a portion of the training calendar), and the board membership at AHRC(Atlanta Harm Reduction Coalition, Inc.)

For your perusal I have attached a calendar, and marketing flyer for NPU Link, a health and wellness collaborative, of which AHRC is a contributing member.

This is my first official, bona-fide leadership position, and have a "blank screen" as to...what does a board member of a social service non-profit organization do?

Do you have any recommended readings that I may gather, and begin to learn from????

I want to "hit the ground running"...yet I feel ill equipped. There is no doubt in my mind that I have "launched out in the deep for a catch", yet its unsettling.

Your recommended readings would be appreciated!

Blanchard.

P.s., see you at Friday's celebration....I need a little fun to balance out the work!!!!

Hi Blanchard,

Congratulations on all that the Lord is doing in your life. God's favor is on you. He has obviously promoted you out of His grace in your life. In regards to serving as your spiritual father, I'll be happy to help guide and develop you as I am able. I have quite a demanding schedule as you can imagine, but my passion is to help develop God's people. So I'll leave it up to you to reach out whenever you need a father's voice to speak into your life. I believe it is a positive thing to always keep a mentor/spiritual father in your life that can develop you for further greatness! I'm proud of your growth and progress. God has never forsaken you. He has a lot invested in you. You are a prime example of one who is succeeding against the odds! Thanks for not giving up! Continue to serve the Lord with gladness. You are a blessing, and I rejoice in what God is doing in your life!

Love,

Bishop

I am so thankful and grateful for you, and the authenticity of your walk with Christ, and have been blessed beyond measure!

When I spoke to you in the receiving line, Thursday, November 15, I mentioned that I have entered into a season of "bearing fruit" and asked that you pray for me, please allow me to explain in detail.

First, last year when I believed that I was being led to another ministry, I was blessed, and received by Rev. Williams as being an authentic leading of The Spirit, and was sent, with his blessing, and the book Under Cover, by John Bevere.

My new church is Mount Vernon Baptist Church-Rev. Rodney K. Turner, Pastor. He is also my friend from childhood years and classmate at Morehouse College.

Rev. Turner received me as a brother in Christ, and immediately we had a private prayer meeting and out of that came a 3-fold commission:

1. Teach Sunday School-Currently teaching
2. Unite with the "Product of the Power" Recovery ministry-Currently participating.
3. Develop an Employment Support ministry for his congregation- Do what I do at Atlanta Workforce Dev. Agency(Same as Sis. Johnetta Williams has accomplished for the Word of Faith Cathedral congregation)

Admittedly I "choked" #3. It seemed too much!

After much prayer, and submitting to process for the past year, I went to Pastor Turner to tell him-Yes, I will do it, and am ready. That was 3 months ago. He's EXCITED, and has mentioned the possibility of a staff position-Much like Sis. Williams

I currently am working on a proposal, and probably will complete to first draft for pastoral review within a week.

Needless to say, if this is an authentic work for Christ, Challenge, testings, and even demonic attacks are coming....and they have!!!!

My Question is this:

Will you agree to be my spiritual father??

1/16/2008

I've never asked this before...I've had one true spiritual mother...Mother Hattie Hewlett.

In my heart of hearts you are my spiritual father. I need the covering of a spiritual father, now more than ever!!!!

Additionally I need mentoring that that relationship would bring,
My life has remained spiritually connected with the Rhema Word, as expressed through your ministry. Having successfully completed the Mentoring training at Word of Faith in 2005, I am especially aware of my own need for mentoring.

For me, as confirmation, my life has kept pace, and the process of your major preaching series down through the years, up to the latest, "Succeeding Against the Odds".

Please respond!!

This is such an intimate request, and not easily made....yet I must ask now....

Respectfully,

Blanchard Cooke.

P. S. I have attached a couple of files, Indicating the "Fruit Bearing" that I mentioned earlier.
