You found the job with your name on it! You meet the qualifications. Actually, you don't, but you have a prayer circle that will bombard heaven on your behalf to ensure that you are considered. You prepare. You knock the interview out of the ballpark. You're offered the position, and you accept. You meticulously select your first day of work outfit. You pack your favorite coffee mug. You make certain you have lunch money just in case no one offers to dine with you on your first day. You plan the quickest route to the workplace. You are ready! Yet, you've forgotten one crucial, make or break concept. Have you considered the worshipper you will be in the workplace?
