

What if I told you God has light for suicide?
A light that will shine truth over His children who have fallen by this unfortunate tragedy.
A light that will travel alongside with a loss survivor to offer everlasting peace and comfort.
A light that will provide weapons for those in battle to use for their victories.

A Child Left Behind by Suicide: From Darkness to God's light is a source for this light to shine bright through the darkness of suicide and its aftermath. God will command His light to shine through all darkness and no one in Christ will truly be left behind with Him. He will never leave His children in a pit of darkness and will reveal His truth to set them free when they chose Him for the strength to get through the process of this traumatic loss and fight.

Mia Wallace has shared her journey of being a child left behind by suicide; and how she was released from the darkness which shadowed her paths of life for many years. She includes comfort, knowledge, and practices which was revealed to her through the Holy Spirit to overcome the tactics used by the enemy to kill, steal, and destroy her with this traumatic part of her life story.

This is a book for all of those who are affected by the spiritual warfare of suicide whether you are affected directly or indirectly you will receive what is meant for you to accomplish your mission to assist with completely abolishing this unfortunate weapon of choice in this era.
